The Jane Carter Solution: Revitalizing Leave- In Conditioner

Beloved readers, I must say I'm rather pleased by this spray.

It makes for a marvelous spritz.

The fragrance is what struck me most. It's absolutely delicious. It's potent, sweet, feminine and well-bodied. This is not your generic flower-water-beauty-product scent. I adore it!

More importantly, it's performance: soft, fleecy, moisturized hair. It left my flat-ironed, natural hair bouncy. This is no easy feat as thick as it is. I'm not going to complain about having thick hair, goodness no, but it does create its own set of challenges to achieving certain looks.

This is a fantastic spritz for natural, relaxed, or textlaxed ladies, who want a romantic scent and shine, true to the creator's word.

This would be awesome as a roller setting aid, relaxed ladies (and very textlaxed ladies). Natural ladies, this will aid in adding sheen. This may help with detangling for those of the 2B and up set. Other ladies, rely on your usual detangling aid and use this after wards.

Is this the most awesome spritz in existence? Not necessarily, no.

In fact, I added Neutral Protein filler to mine in a spray bottle (refrigerate it if you do, NPF spoils once mixed with other ingredients!) to make this absolutely perfect for my particular mane.

Is it the most deliciously scented spritz I've used to date, that helps detangle and add shine, without weighing my hair down or drying it out?

Yes. ^_^

How? "Peep" the lovely ingredients list below:

Purified Water, Extracts of Aloe Vera, Comfrey, Watercress, Myrrh, Panthenol, Essential Oils, Anthemis Nobilis Flower, Symphytum Officinale, Equisetum Arvense, Urtica Dioica (Nettle), Rosmarinus Officinalis (Rosemary) Leaf, Humulus Lupulus (Hops) Lawsonia Inermis (Henna), Butoxyethanol, Polyquaternium11, Soyamid DEA, PPG30, Cetyl Ether, Oleth-3 Phosphate, Hydantoin, Glyceryl caprylate, methylisothiazolinone (preservative)

Tasty, no? ^_~

A note on the packaging...the spray delivers a great amount with each spritz and has a sturdy pump, which is always a plus. You know how I feel about labels on bottles, that have no curves if you've read my blog long enough. However, I do like the color scheme: I love a warm and cozy color palette! ^_^ The font is cute and well-laid out and who can be angry about a big, happy sunflower?
