4 Great Sources for Natural Hair Products (and 1 for Everything Else)

Have you ever been about to complete an order for a hair product only to find the cost of shipping exceeds the cost of the product? No matter how much I want to try the product, I just can't bring myself to click through and complete the order. That's why I was so happy to find a few online stores that carry natural products from many makers. I like the ability to buy natural haircare products from different lines all at once while paying one shipping charge. It's worth it to get on the email lists of some of these sites so you can be notified of sales and special offers.

CurlMart

This is part of Naturally Curly, a great site and forum for all things curly girl. The CurlMart carries about thirty-seven brands of products for curls including Blended Beauty, Oyin Handmade, Jessicurl, Kinky-Curly, Original Sprout, Jane Carter Solution, Miss Jessie's, Curls, Mixed Chicks, and many more. In the sale section of the site, they not only feature individual products but include special offers. In October, orders over $60 ship free using coupon code freeship60.

Afro Kinks

Afro Kinks carries Blended Beauty, Taliah Waajid Black Earth Products, Karen's Body Beautiful, Curls, Jane Carter Solution, HPO (that's short for Happy People Only), Darcy's Botanicals, Mixed Chicks, My Honey Child, and more.

Honey Fig

Honey Fig offers AfroVeda, Curls, Blended Beauty, Oyin Handmade, Darcy's Botanicals, Jessicurl, Kinky-Curly, Jane Carter Solution, Miss Jessie's, Mixed Chicks and others. They have skin care products, combs and brushes. Orders ship from Canada and they have a retail store in Toronto.

Treasured Locks

This site carries a lot of their own brand of hair care products, but they also offer Taliah Waajid Black Earth, Shea Moisture, and Nubian Heritage products. You can also order a Kakakiki Komb through Treasured Locks.

Amazon

What isn't sold at Amazon? There are a surprising amount of natural products available through Amazon. Carol's Daughter, Hair Rules, Curls, Aubrey Organics, Original Sprout, and Shea Moisture are a few. Amazon also has a lot of ingredients to make hair treats, hair accessories, and hair books. I'm working on a little Happy Girl Hair Amazon store to bring it all together, the Amazon link above will take you to it. I do want to caution you though, while Amazon is convenient, most of the hair products themselves are sold through third-party sellers, each with their own shipping charges.

Happy shopping!

Ok, I haven't posted a comment in awhile, but I wanted to let you know that I finally tried the Aubrey Organics Island Natural Conditioner and all I can say is WOW! I'm not too keen on the smell -- it really does smell like Boo Boo medicine -- but it really does a nice job of detangling on my daughter's hair AND I don't need to use half a bottle to do it! Thanks for the recommendation!

You are welcome amy-o! I'm so glad it's working for you. I don't even smell it anymore but it sure was weird at first, especially since the bottle is white with a green cap and the same size as my bottle of Bactine. I have to admit that even though I knew there was no way to mix the two up, I checked the conditioner bottle more than once during a wash.
