JC wrap and roll is nice–BUT you should try Nairobi Wrapp-it Shine Foam...THE BEST!

jane carter products are okay...the best products in her line are the leave-in condish, nourish&shine and the other moisturizer like the nourish&shine. i still have the wrap and roll, condition&sculp, the natural hold spray and the spray gel, which really didn't do anything for my hair but leave it flakey. i refuse to give these products up because I paid for them so hopefully I can make them work. May only purchase the leave-in again.

Did you dilute the Lottabody setting lotion? I use about 1 part Lottabody to about two parts water and it's never crunchy and I still get hold for days.

Great review. I will have to try this, I tried few products by Jane Carter and didn't work out well for me. I tried using Lotta Body setting lotion and it made my hair to hair a crunchy, but I loved it when I have my relaxer.
